

A Special Holiday Event

HBAC's 2005 events ended with a sparkle. Margaret Dickenson, the featured speaker at our December meeting, is the award-winning author of From the Ambassador's Table. Host of the international award winning series Margaret's Sense of Occasion, and Margaret's Entertaining Minutes, Margaret shared imaginative tips on holiday decorating and entertaining with the HBAC. Our members delighted in tasting homemade chocolates, and left with inspiring cooking and decorating ideas for the holiday season.

HBAC members also took time to donate gifts to the women's shelter residents of Logifem, which has become an annual event at the December meeting. Along with two personal contributions to Logifem by HBAC members, HBAC was able to present Logifem with a cheque for $2,650.

The December meeting marked two other noted events. HBAC held its first Annual General Meeting, and celebrated the launch of HBAC's bilingual Web site.

Each of our meetings provides an opportunity to network and exchange information with other professional women, as well as to develop our skills through our speakers, and give back to the community.

We have many exciting programs in store for 2006. To find out more, visit our Web site at www.HBAC.ca, or contact our board members. GPM
