

Breast Cancer Doesn't Have to Happen

With the probability of one in nine women being diagnosed with breast cancer in her lifetime, our February 7th, 2008 meeting really hit home.

Carol Sector and Deena Dlusy-Apel of Breast Cancer Action Montreal presented an eye-opening talk called "Breast Cancer as We See It."

They discussed the disease and its risk factors, including the impact of new and unknown chemicals in our environment. We received information on prevention and discovered how to take action.

Join HBAC to hear innovative, stimulating and sometimes controversial speakers that make us think outside the box. Network and make new connections. Have fun and enjoy the camaraderie.

Nives Listes, Board Member, with Gwen Mohamed, Director of Logifem.
