

Winston Churchill

"I contend that for a nation to try to tax itself into prosperity is like a man standing in a bucket and trying to lift himself up by the handle."

Mark Twain

"If you don't read the newspaper you are uninformed, if you do read the newspaper you are misinformed."

John Adams

"In my many years I have come to a conclusion that one useless man is a shame, two is a law firm, and three or more is a congress."

15 GREAT TRUTHS

Winston Churchill

"The inherent vice of capitalism is the unequal sharing of the blessings. The inherent blessing of socialism is the equal sharing of misery."

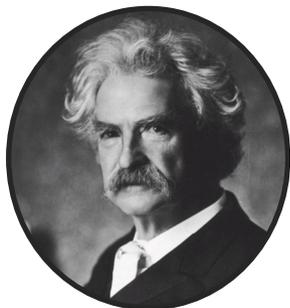

Ronald Reagan

"Government's view of the economy could be summed up in a few short phrases: If it moves, tax it. If it keeps moving, regulate it. And if it stops moving, subsidize it."

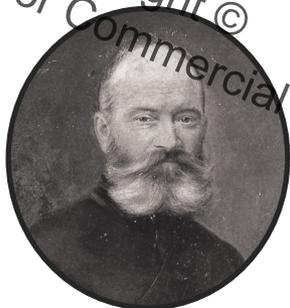

Thomas Jefferson

"A government big enough to give you everything you want is strong enough to take everything you have."

Mark Twain

"No man's life, liberty, or property is safe while the legislature is in session."

Edward Langley

"What this country needs are more unemployed politicians."

G. Gordon Liddy

"A liberal is someone who feels a great debt to his fellow man, which debt he proposes to pay off with your money."

Mark Twain

"Suppose you were an idiot. And suppose you were a member of Congress. But then I repeat myself."

P. J. O'Rourke

"Giving money and power to government is like giving whiskey and car keys to teenage boys."

George Bernard Shaw

"A government which robs Peter to pay Paul can always depend on the support of Paul."

P. J. O'Rourke

"If you think health care is expensive now, wait until you see what it costs when it's free!"

Will Rogers

"I don't make jokes. I just watch the government and report the facts."

Anonymous

"Talk is cheap, except when Congress does it."
